

Adult Chunky Mitten

Magic Loop method
A Lois Moore Creation

Made with Homespun and a sturdy Red Heart such as Super Saver carried together on size #11 circular needle. These mittens look long and narrow but stretch out to fit medium to large hands comfortably.

Cast on 16 stitches

Row 1 and 2: Knit one, purl one ribbing

Row 3 and 4: Knit all stitches

Row 5: Increase in first stitch, knit to last stitch, increase. (18 stitches)

Row 6 and 7: Knit all stitches

Row 8: Increase in first stitch, knit to last stitch, increase. (20 stitches)

Row 9 and 10: Knit all stitches

Row 11: Increase in first stitch, knit to last stitch, increase. (22 stitches)

Row 12 and 13: Knit all stitches

Row 14: Knit 3; place these on bulky waste yarn. Knit to last 3. Place these 3 on opposite end of waste yarn. These 6 stitches are held for thumb.

With working yarn coming from back needle, cast on 2 stitches onto that needle point. (18 sts)
Continue knitting these 18 stitches (8 on front needle, 10 on back needle) for 14 rows.
Reposition stitches to 9 on each point.
