

Letter from Lois – April 2020

WOW! What a different time and life style for us all!

We've learned a new term, "social distancing". We're getting back into cooking rather than restaurants and fast food. It seems, once folks settle down with this new situation and realize that there's plenty of food and other items on our grocery store shelves and they will continue to have what we need...the stress level will lessen.

We can't go to our gym for our exercise...they have all closed their doors to help keep us safe. We're walking around our neighborhoods or our park trails, being certain to keep our 6-foot distance from those around us.

From the Heart has had to close our doors for now but, rest assured, once this situation eases, we will be back in business, knitting, crocheting and sewing as fast as our little fingers will go! All those items we have made and delivered in the past will have certainly been passed along to patients and others in need so we will be working double time to catch up! Especially the need for blankets of all sizes and colors. This seems like a great time to clear out some of your stash. We must make room for all the beautiful colors and textures available for future projects!

But we WILL keep a positive attitude through it all! Stay busy stitching, exercising, getting outside as much as possible into fresh air. And don't forget to feed the birds. They are using up so much energy now with all their courting, nest building and singing, just for us!

Keep that smile on your face. Know we are all in this together. Stay healthy and make plans to see us at the shop as soon as possible once this nightmare is behind us all!

Lois

From the Heart 2020 Retreat Theme: Woodlands

Woodland Fairy

At our annual Retreat on Saturday, August 22, 2020, we will offer only two classes, one knit and one crochet. Participants will have to register in advance and those who have not registered will not be permitted to take the class. The registration form for the Retreat is at the front of this newsletter.

Registration for the Retreat will open on May 1 and Beth must have the form in hand by July 31, 2020.

The crochet class will be "How to Create a Crocheted Snowflake" and supplies will be provided. The instructor will be Lois Little. Many of you have likely seen Lois' snowflakes and know they are extremely beautiful. This class will be offered in the morning. Lizard Harper will teach a knitting class on "Mitered Squares". This class will be offered in the afternoon and all supplies will be provided. Sign up early once you have registered.

As each class is only being offered once, we will have more room for participants, and we believe we can accept 35-40 in each class. Please let Tricia (804)683-9015 know asap if you would like to attend a class as we will need to know how many assistants our teachers will need. You must be registered to attend the Retreat before you sign up for a class.

We will also have our raffle and items are starting to be donated for that, including two beautiful quilted wreaths, a quilted table runner, an actual quilt, a knitted shawl, two beautiful large, knitted, dolls compete with their own backpacks and bunnies, and a woven totebag - all hand-made of course. In addition, we will also have our door prizes, bingo, and a delicious sit-down lunch.

Vendors:

- Cas Schirra, Everlasting Glass (handmade glass items for your garden)
- Dances with Wool (local yarn store)
- Sheila Weisensale's Creation (paper creations and framed beauties)
- The Merry Soapmakers (handmade soaps and lotions)
- Key Clayworks (functional and decorative pottery which is handmade)

Speakers:

- Judy Jamison, MCV/VCU
- Makita Byrd, YWCA Richmond. Makita is the From the Heart liaison between the YWCA and the domestic abuse shelter.
- In addition, one of the Board members will bring everyone up to date, especially our members who have joined since our last Retreat, on what From the Heart has achieved in the past year

Please note if you register to attend and need to cancel for any reason, we will be unable to offer refunds once registration has closed on July 31. Substitutions, however, will be allowed until 3 days before the Retreat, (Wednesday, August 19), to allow sufficient time for Beth to have accurate information at sign-in on the 22nd.

Current Needs – April 2020

We are asking that you store any items you make, in your own home, until all the chaos around COVID-19 has settled down. Once From the Heart is back to normal operating procedures, you may bring anything you have collected to your normal FtH distribution point. We are working on the assumption that, once all is normal again, there will be a much larger than normal need for items among our clients. Therefore, although we are listing those items we recognize as current needs, anything and everything you create during this time will find a good home at a later point.

Richmond and Surrounding areas:

- Create whatever you like as there will be a need for everything

Fredericksburg/King George has a need for:

- Baby items
- Blankets of all sizes
- Fiddle aprons, mats and squares
- Walker & wheelchair totes

There are baby blanket patterns at the end of this newsletter if you decide that is what you would like to make. The size can be easily varied by making and checking a swatch first and then calculating number of stitches/chains required for the width you want. Then, simply work until the blanket is your desired length. For example, if your swatch shows that you knit 4 stitches/rows to 1” and you want a blanket 30” wide, cast on 120 stitches and knit until it is as long as you want it to be. You will need to consider any pattern repeats, whether stitches or rows.

Richmond Area Yarn Swap, Leftovers Workshop, and Potluck Luncheon : May 23

Our Richmond Area Yarn Swap, Leftovers Workshop and Potluck Luncheon has been scheduled for Saturday, May 23, 2020, from 10:00am until 3:00pm at the Brandermill Church in Midlothian.

We will be offering two classes on “How to Make a Log Cabin Blanket”, one crochet and one knit. The classes will not be offered at the same time, to give those who would like to attend both the opportunity to do so. Log Cabin blankets are usually created using leftover yarn so this is an excellent opportunity to learn a new technique to use up your odds and ends, but also something which we can use in our From the Heart mission.

Yarn, hooks, and needles will be supplied for your use at the classes. We will, however, have plenty of leftovers on hand if you want to take some home and make a blanket for From the Heart.

We are also planning to have a yarn swap so bring along any yarn you have had for a while but now know you will not use. You will have the opportunity to swap it for something you think you might use. All skeins must be new, clean, and unused.

We will have a mini-raffle and a few small door prizes. Lunch will be in the form of a potluck so make your favorite dish, salad, or dessert to share. There are a few, but not many, electrical outlets we can use to keep hot dishes hot.

Mark your calendars now so you don’t forget and please let Tricia know if you plan to attend, so that we can have sufficient ice, drinks, utensils, etc. on hand. Tricia can be reached, by phone, at (804)683-9015 or by email at triciaennis2014@gmail.com.

Tip of the Month

The majority of us, whether we knit or crochet, most likely have a nice stash stored away somewhere. When we bought the yarn, which is in our stash, we most likely found a really nice pattern to use with the yarn. Then, we most likely added the yarn to our stash and kept the pattern in either our binder or our mind. If you are like me, you have gone back to your stash on more than one occasion and, for the life of you, could not remember what pattern you had in mind (or in binder) to use with the yarn that is begging to be used right now. Here's a quick and easy idea to solve that problem. When you have decided on your project, get a Ziploc bag and write the size of the needle(s) or hook(s) required on the outside of the bag and then place the yarn and pattern inside the bag. Zip up and store in your "waiting until I free myself from my works in progress stash." This might mean you have two stashes but at least one of them will be nicely organized 😊

Hours, April Scheduler & March Elf of the Month

The From the Heart workshop is open from 10am until 2pm every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Jacqueline Muoio is the April scheduler and she can be reached at msjbangles@yahoo.com or by phone at 840-4687. Please let Jacqueline know if you would like to volunteer a couple of hours in April, starting with the date of Tuesday, April 14th. You will be notified if our closing needs to extend beyond that time.

The From the Heart schedulers are:

Ann Robbins: aerobbins@live.com, 270-6247 (h), 921-1174 (c)

Tricia Ennis: triciaennis2014@gmail.com, 683-9015

Jacqueline Muoio: msjbangles@yahoo.com, 840-4687

Kulla Ficare: Kulla.ficare@verizon.net, (804)263-5480

The winner of the workshop Elf prize for February is Sheila Robinson. Please pick up some nice yarn, maybe some leftover Dollar Daze yarn, for your personal use once the workshop reopens, Sheila.

For Your Browsing Pleasure

"Crochet Alert!! There is always something new arriving on the scene and it has for crochet. Grab some yarn and a comfortable crochet hook and at least 30 to 45 minutes and go to 3D Crochet on YouTube. This gives 3 different tutorials to duplicate 3D crochet and also lists different patterns that can be made from 3D. The stitch is soft and unusual. Who said there was nothing new for crochet?"

Knit and Crochet Now

"Season 10 of Knit and Crochet Now is airing on Create TV. In North Chesterfield for Verizon customers, check your VPM Create Channel 470. All others should check their local PBS or VPM listings.

A new addition to the show this season is Jonah Larson, an eleven-year-old crochet prodigy. He taught himself to crochet at the tender age of five by watching a YouTube video. Jonah will offer projects for teaching children to crochet. It's worth the watch to see just how fast this young artist can crochet!

Each show has one knit and one crochet project and helpful tips and tricks. Patterns for all of their projects can be found at Knitandcrochetnow.com."

Calendar Updates for April 2020

Please note that the calendar at the end of this newsletter is, in all likelihood, not going to be correct.

Obviously, as we move through this COVID-19 season, things will change, and meetings will need to be postponed or cancelled. The calendar has been created as though we were in "normal" times. Of course, we are not. Therefore, before you head to ANY meeting, please check that the group is actually meeting. Also, bear in mind that the Governor has placed a restriction on the number of people actually allowed to meet. At present, that number is 10 but may be subject to change.

As you are aware, the workshop on Westbriar Drive is closed until Tuesday, April 14th at the earliest. Even though school has been canceled for the remainder of the school year, From the Heart MAY re-open on April 14th. We will reassess the situation closer to that time and let you know.

In the meantime, please let me know if you lead a group and would like to be added as the leader on calendars in the future.

Thank you, please practice social distancing, wash your hands often and do all you can to stay safe and healthy.

Knit Bring it on Baby Blanket

For Cast on and Bind off use size 13 or 15 needles. Using larger needles will create more relaxed beginning and ending ridges.

For body of blanket, use needles a few sizes larger than suggested on yarn label. I used Lion Brand Pound of Love and size 10 needles. This is an eleven-stitch pattern repeat.

For infant size blanket cast on (using your larger needle) 100 stitches. You may increase this count in increments of 11 for larger child or adult blanket.

Knit 4 rows of garter stitch (this means knit every row)

Begin pattern:

Row 1: Knit 2 together, knit 2 together, yarn over, knit 1, yarn over, knit 1, yarn over, knit 1, yarn over, knit 2 together, knit 2 together (11 stitches used). Repeat these 11 stitches to the end of the row. I always place a marker after each set of 11 stitches, moving them when coming to them on every row.

Rows 2,3 and 4: Knit all stitches.

Repeat these 4 rows until blanket measures desired size.

Finish blanket by knitting all stitches (garter stitch) for the last 4 rows. Use larger needle to cast off final edge.

Crochet Ruffled Edge Baby Blanket

Supplies:

4 – 6oz skeins of Caron Simply Soft yarn , K Crochet Hook, Tapestry needle for weaving in ends

Body:

Foundation: Ch. 100 & turn (to make larger add increments of 4) Row 1: in 4th chain from hook (dc2, ch1, sc1) repeat all the way across in every 4th chain. At the last chain do just one dc, ch2 and turn.

Row 2: In the space created by the chain (not the actual chain stitch) continue the same stitch pattern (dc2, ch1, sc1) repeating all the way across. After doing the last one in the top of the last dc stitch from the row below dc1 and then ch2 and turn.

Row 3-63: repeat row 2.

If you made it wider than 100 chains continue rows until it is square – 100 chain results in a blanket approximately 35” sq.

Ruffle:

Round 1: ch1 sc around all 4 sides of the blanket sc3 in each of the 4 corner stitches, sl to connect at end of round

Round 2: ch2, dc2 in each sc all the way around dc4 in each of the 4 corners, sl to connect at end of round

Round 3: ch2, repeat the pattern (dc2 in the first sc, dc1 in the next sc) all the way around dc3 in each of the 4 corners, sl to connect at end of round

Round 4: ch2 repeat the pattern (dc2 in the first sc, dc1 in the next 2 sc) all the way around dc3 in each of the 4 corners, sl to connect at end of round and tie off to complete.

Weave in all loose ends.
