

Continuing From the Heart's Soft Reopening

The workshop at 1114 Westbriar Drive in Henrico is now open for people to come in to sit and craft during regular hours which are 10am until 2pm on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. A total of 7 people (5 crafters and 2 elves) will be allowed in the workshop at any given time, not to include people who come in for just a couple of minutes to get yarn for a future From the Heart project.

We will continue to require the use of masks while in the workshop and also request that people practice reasonable social distancing. Everybody will have to sign the register on the front desk in the hopefully unlikely event we need to engage in any form of contact tracing.

As always, we request that you do not come to the workshop if you are feeling unwell or running a temperature or if you have been in the company of someone who has been unwell.

Thank you all so much and I'm looking forward to seeing you at the workshop soon.

Letter from Lois – June 2022

My hat's off to every one of you. Whether you stitch non-stop and turn in stacks of items weekly or manage to find a moment after meals, kids, and homework or between appointments to add a stitch or two to your row, we salute you! You may only turn in one or two items now and then...not a problem, you are as important as every other member in our list of almost 2,000 stitchers.

All those all-day stitching sessions as well as those stolen moments to sneak in a row or two add up quickly. In just about 21 years since our beginnings your precious time has accumulated close to 500,000 donated items! Now remember, during those first few years there were only a few of us, turning in maybe a couple hundred items per year. But now, with our membership numbers, the count has soared wonderfully!

Think of this. If you turn in a hat, that hat is given to maybe a chemo patient; the smile you have created is wonderful. Now, the happiness of that patient is seen on the face of the nurse who offers the hat basket for that selection to be made. Most often there is a friend or family member with the patient during infusion...another smile! Those patients/visitors in other infusion chairs are bitten by the smile bug...there you go...a room full of smiles! Now follow that patient out of the cancer center. That infectious smile may just touch those in passing on the way to the parking lot but the best...when our patient encounters their family and extended family...everyone is so excited to finally see a smile on our patient's face...everyone lights up! And it all started with you and your stitches.

You can quickly see how important you have become to your community. As a team we have become key to the lives of homeless folks, giving them a sense of someone caring enough to think of their comfort. Your touch is certainly felt by all the children and adults in our area dealing with the discomforts of cancer treatments. Think about the warmth you spread to dialysis patients and nursing homes, hospices, and memory care facilities with your blankets. There are those teeny, tiny preemie babies. Some are beginning to grow and flourish in their NICU environment, preparing to go home while others have been abandoned there...left behind by those who should love them. A lovingly made little outfit may be the only thing of their own for some time, until they are placed as a foster care child and begin to face their uncertain lives. It's such a warm feeling to be able to at least show them our love.

And then there are those suffering parents who face having to go home alone after the birth of their baby. We help there...just a little bit, by supplying a precious outfit for that tiny one and by giving those grieving parents a keepsake to have forever of that sweet little memory. (Just wipe away those tears on your newsletter and keep reading...)

So, where am I going with this? I think we should consider June as Hats off to Stitchers month! A pat on your own back and pass it along! Celebrate! Spread the word! There just might be others out there who would enjoy being a part of our sharing community. Invite them in! We welcome everyone!

Look forward to seeing you at the shop soon.

Lois

From the Heart Retreat: Shining Our Light

Be sure to mark your calendar for the From the Heart retreat on October 1. The suggested donation will remain at $40, to cover the cost of lunch and room rental at The Place at Innsbrook.

Registration forms will go out with next month's newsletter.

Our speakers for the event will be:

- Judy Knauf, "doctor" at the Doll Hospital Annex, and From the Heart liaison with several recipient groups
- Liz Dukette, founder and CEO of World U.P., a humanitarian organization which improves access to resources for people in need. From the Heart supplies World U.P. with toiletry bags and hand-made washcloths which they distribute from their mobile food pantry underserved communities.
- Potentially, we will also have Bev Gibson from Vessels of Mercy. Bev's commitment is obviously dependent on the state of affairs worldwide at the time.

We will have two classes. Don't forget that all class supplies will be provided for you, but you will need to register to attend a class as a different matter from registering for the retreat. Once registration has been opened for the Retreat, in July, you will need to contact either Kulla or Tricia to register for a class.

- Johnny Wood is looking at the possibility of teaching the I-cord cast on as used in the Stephen West "Boneyard" shawl. Whether or not Johnny decides on this particular class, he will be teaching a knitting class.
- For our crochet class, Francine Nelson, and Joyce Puller will present the waffle stitch through teaching it and exploring the technological enhances through the use of Tic-Toc, CAL's, knitalongs, and handouts.

Our confirmed vendors for this event are

- Center of the Yarniverse, a local yarn store located in Ashland, Va. You can check out the possibilities of what they might bring to our retreat by going to their website at www.centeroftheyarniverse.com.
- Our own Sheila Weisensale from Weisensale Creations will be offering a lovely selection of handmade note cards and other paper creations, which all include a selection of flowers and seeds from Sheila's personal garden.
- Merry Soapmakers of Powhatan. Hand crafted soaps and hand creams made with natural ingredients such as lavender and goat milk.
- Classy Accessories offers really well made and very cute towels, totes, and jewelry. Check that out on Facebook here
- Although not yet confirmed, there is also a possibility that Cas Schirra may join us again with her beautiful hand-crafted recycled glass and china items.

In addition to our vendors, classes, and speakers, we will have a sit down, boxed lunch (choices available to you will be on the registration form), a raffle which always consists of gorgeous hand-crafted items ($1 per ticket, 6 tickets for $5. See photo for examples of what will be raffled), a grab bag table, random raffles for door prizes throughout the day, table prizes, and BINGO

FtH Awareness Day at Dances with Wool Volunteers Needed for 1- or 2-Hour Shifts

On Saturday July 9th, Midlothian's local yarn shop, Dances With Wool, will be hosting a From the Heart Awareness Day. 10% of that day's proceeds will be donated by Dances With Wool to From the Heart.

From the Heart members will be there all day long to provide information about our organization to those shoppers who might want to become involved. We will have our Informational Brochure, our Newsletter, and copies of a few patterns with us, for those who might wish to create something for From the Heart in the future. We may also bring along a few samples of the items we create for donation to various places.

Contact Tricia at triciaennis2014@gmail.com or (804)683-9015) if you have an hour or so on Saturday, July 9th and would like to be part of spreading the news about From the Heart into our community. Dances With Wool will be open from 11:00am until 5:00pm that day and we need volunteers to be there all day long so are requesting that people who volunteer be willing to spend one or two hours at the event (longer if you want).

Directions to Dances With Wool can be found HERE.

Tip of the Month Making a Larger Crochet Horseshoe Shawl

One of our inventive FtH volunteers, Debbie Melanson, shared her suggestion for creating a larger size crochet shawl. She realized that some women have larger necks, wider shoulders, and more girth in the bust area. By increasing the starting chain for the Crochet Wheelchair Wrap Pattern by adding 12 additional chain stitches which will add 2 additional dc stitches in each section, the end result is a wider spread around the shoulders. She also noted that by adding more rows to the shawl will add more warmth and balance to the garment. Please attach a note stating "Large Size" when donating a large size shawl.

Thanks so much, Debbie, for this great idea! Debbie's hand-written notes on her revised pattern can be found at <https://fromtheheartstitchers.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/05/LG-wheelchair-shawl-pattern.pdf>

If you have any tips or suggestions to share with our members, please email kulla.ficare@verizon.net.

Bob the Hat Man

Generally, when members talk about, or think about people who knit or crochet, they tend to think about women. Often, we forget there are some amazing men who knit and/or crochet for us. This is the story of one of the men in the Fredericksburg group who stitches for From the Heart on a regular basis. His wife Karen, who also makes many items for us, shared how Bob became 'Bob the hat man' as we have so fondly nicknamed him. As an 82-year-old former heavy equipment operator, Karen said she sometimes wonders what his former colleagues would have to say about Bob's hobby.

"Bob started knitting about 10 years ago after I tried teaching our granddaughter to use a loom. She lost interest, so I brought the loom home. Bob asked me to teach him! His mother was a knitter as well as both grandmothers, and they taught him to make those 4" Weave- It squares for afghans as a kid. He quickly developed his own method for making hats on his round loom and now averages 2 per day. He really loves working with yarn and picking just the right colors. He even recycles the leftover scraps by knotting them tightly together and then winding the skeins on his yarn winder. Known as Bob's Yarn in our neighborhood group, it works up beautifully into some very colorful lap blankets.

Bob has tried to broaden his horizons by learning to crochet and knit on straight or circular needles but is happiest with his loom. When he's not making hats, he enjoys helping out at the FTH unit sorting yarn, picking up donations and driving the truck when needed for deliveries and a few last-minute moves. Having a shared hobby like this has been such an unexpected retirement reward. We share most of the chores and he cooks too!! He completely understands how hard it can be to put down a favorite project and start dinner!! What a bonus!!

I forgot to mention Bob's preferred vacation. It involves a big shopping bag of yarn and a comfortable chair and a family puzzle. We all go to the beach, and he avoids the sun. The picture above was taken in Duck, Outer Banks about 6 years ago. That spot was his happy place to knit. We all went to the beach, but Bob just wanted to make hats! Everybody wins"

This is one of the hats he made. As you can see, Bob doesn't make a brim. He just keeps knitting from the cast on to the top of the hat. He leaves about 12" from the cast on row to loosely thread it around the first row and doesn't knot it so it's more adjustable.

For Your Browsing Pleasure

June brings the beatdown of high humidity and temperatures in Virginia. This is the perfect time for small knit and crochet items for vacation travel as well as keeping the lap open and airy. <https://wendyknits.net/finished-work-free-patterns> has 25 free sock patterns as well as scarf patterns. For the crocheters fosbasdesigns.com will provide free crochet patterns for bags, scarves, baby booties, as well as crochet stitch tutorials. The arcade stitch looked very intriguing. Continue on to <http://www.sewrella.com> for patterns for both knit and crochet accessories. Think about items that may be needed by Ukraine displaced people in the coming months. May 29 the temperature in Ukraine was 62 degrees. Happy Flag Day June 14th!

Super Easy Doll That Pretty Much Anybody Could Make Quickly

Here is a super easy, super-fast way to make a super cute doll, with no knitting or crocheting knowledge required and minimal sewing knowledge required. Use NEW socks only please if you decide to make these little dolls. The Dollar Store often has socks for $1.25.

Draw a face with permanent marker, stuff the body and head lightly, tie a ribbon around the sock to delineate the body from the head and secure it with a couple of stitches. Then take an elastic band and secure it above the “head” as shown.

Fold the hem down to create a hat.

Take a square piece of flannel or fleece (size will depend on the size of the sock you are working with, but the doll should be able to fit into the “sleeping bag” as shown. You can experiment with sizes before completing it.

Fold and sew, as shown to create a little “sleeping bag” with sides that can be folded over the doll. The sewing can be done by hand – just make sure that everything is well secured and cannot be pulled apart easily by a child or a person in memory care.

Many thanks to Beth Watkins for introducing these to FtH.
